day evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hannah Mahoney, on Prospect street. She had been sick only since Friday with pneumonia.

She was born in Ireland about 70 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Enright. She came to this country in 1871 and spent four years in the south, where she was married to James Hughes. The latter lived but a short time after their marriage.
Mrs. Hughes moved to Greenville 43 years ago and has since made her home with her sister, Mrs. Mahoney.
The deceased was a regular attendant at St. Mary's church and had many friends here and elsewhere. She was the only immediate relative surviving.

The regular monthly meeting of the Holy Name society was held in the assembly room of St. Mary's church at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. There was good attendance. Four applications for membership were received and other business was transacted. Rev. Wm.
H. Kennedy addressed the meeting, speaking on the life and work of the late Archbishop Patrick John Ryan of Philadelphia.

tants to act with the board of governors were appointed.

BOWLING MATCH ARRANGED FOR HARTFORD AND NORWICH.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith of Bridgeport to Roll Ten Games.

J. C. Stone arranged on Monday with W. L. Smith of Bridgeport, better known as "Doc" Smith, for a duplicate match between Mr. and Mrs. Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Smith at Hartford and Norwich. The match will be held at Hartford for the next six weeks, that being the cause of the games being rolled there. There will be ten games, the first five to be rolled at Hartford March 15, while the other five will be rolled at Norwich. The match will begin on March 22. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are in town and their first experience on sandpapered alleys here made a most favorable impression.

Smith is the official timekeeper for Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler of the world, and made the fact known that he and his wife challenge any man and woman duckpin duo in the state, claiming the double championship. John J. C. Stone, the manager of the Rose alleys, and his wife, who are some chaps on the alleys themselves, took immediate exception to Mr. Smith's claim and accepted his open challenge.

Local Case Before U. S. Supreme Court Mondou Suit Against New Haven Road, Which Was Appealed from the State Supreme Court, Will Be Argued by Attorney Perkins Today.

Before the supreme court of the United States at Washington Monday afternoon will be the so-called "Mondou case," which has been one of the most important cases coming before the court in several months. The case has been postponed for several months to insure a hearing before the full court, for like the trust cases recently argued before the court, the decision on the points raised in these cases will be of the utmost importance to the commercial and industrial interests of the country. The decision will be of far-reaching effect and will be of particular interest to the laboring man, determining as it will the constitutionality of the Act of Congress, of April 22, 1908, which provides for the liability of the employer for negligence of the servant resulting in injury to a fellow servant, happening in the prosecution of interstate business.

There are several of these cases to be heard together, all arising on questions as to the interpretation of the act and coming from various states.
The first of these cases is the Mondou case, in which the plaintiff, a railroad employee, is suing the New Haven road for damages for injuries sustained by him while on duty. The plaintiff, Edgar G. Mondou, being a resident of this city, is the defendant being the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, which left for Washington on last Saturday evening and will return after completing his argument today.
In this case Mr. Perkins is represented by Attorney Donald G. Perkins of Norwich, who left for Washington on last Saturday evening and will return
after completing his argument today.
The case is of great importance, as it will determine the liability of the employer for the negligence of the servant in the prosecution of interstate business.

ALDRICH WITH THE
PRESIDENT FOR RECIPROCITY Announcement a Surprise to the Stand-pat Senators.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Senator Aldrich, chairman of the senate Finance committee, has written to President Taft that he favors the confirmation of the Canadian reciprocity agreement. Whether the letter promises assistance in getting action by the senate at the present session has not been disclosed, but senators who have seen the letter intimate that the Rhode Island senator will do all he can to aid the president in carrying his programme to success.

The announcement that Senator Aldrich, whose name is attached to the existing tariff act, had subscribed to the terms of the reciprocal agreement with Canada, was received with great surprise in the senate, especially by the stand-pat senators, who have come out against the agreement on the ground that it is not in compliance with the tenets of the republican party on the subject of protection.

No announcement was made at the White house today in respect to the letter and there was considerable speculation as to the capitol as to whether the message would be made public.
Early in the present session, Senator Aldrich was compelled to leave Washington on account of his health. He is spending the winter at Jekyll Island, Ga., and although much better than when he left here, it is not likely he will be able to take any further part in tariff legislation, for his services in the senate will end March 4. His letter, therefore, even if made public, can have no effect other than to ease the minds of some stand-pat senators who are inclined to vote for the Canadian agreement against their convictions.
